If you are a Christian leader or layman seeking to experience healing from life's hurts and you desire to begin restoring healthy relationships with God, family and others and then minister the same to others, this training is for you.

Elijah House

Each year thousands of individuals and families experience the powerful healing of Jesus Christ through the Elijah House School. It has helped thrust them into their destiny in God.

If you are a professional individual or work with the public on a regular basis and desire to begin to restore healthy relationships with God and others, then training is for you.

This school will help you discover Scriptural answers to many searching questions we all have about life, God and ourselves. The training will equip you with greater vision and hope for the future....to take you into a deeper, more exciting and fulfilling love relationship with Jesus.....and to prepare, empower, and release you into a new anointing to help others. We simply give you the tools to further your healing, restore your relationships, and minister to others.

You will learn the keys to healing and to be able to assist others in the process.

Course Format

Training is a classroom setting with textbook, homework assignments and small group sessions.

Each week there will be two lessons and a one-hour small group session. Lessons and small group participation are required. The small group time is an integral part of the educational process and should be entered into with a spirit of cooperation. This is a time to practice and apply the principles learned.
